“writing” means the representation or reproduction of words, symbols or other information in a visible form by any method or combination of methods, whether sent or supplied in electronic form or otherwise.

Unless the context otherwise requires, other words or expressions contained in these Articles bear the same meaning as in the Companies Act 2006 as in force on the date when these Articles become binding on the Company. The provisions of Schedule 2 of the Companies (Model Articles) Regulations 2008 (SI 2008/3229) shall not apply to the Company and these Articles shall apply instead.

PART 2 OBJECTS

2. Objects

The Company's purpose is to act as the governing body for the Sport of Judo in Wales and in doing so:

1. to promote Judo throughout Wales;
2. to provide to the Members, services, advice and assistance in connection with Judo;
3. to provide and promote Judo related education, training and other services to Members, organisations and the public in Wales;
4. to do all other things that are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objectives.

3. Liability of Members

- 3.1. The liability of each Member is limited to £1, being the amount that each Member undertakes to contribute to the assets of the Company in the event of its being wound up while a Member or within one year after ceasing to be a Member, for;-
- 3.2. payment of the Company's debts and liabilities contracted before ceasing to be a Member,
- 3.3. payment of the costs, charges and expenses of winding up, and
- 3.4. adjustment of the rights of the contributories among themselves.

PART 3 DIRECTORS

DIRECTORS' POWERS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

4. Directors' general authority

Subject to the Articles, the Directors are responsible for the management of the Company's business, for which purpose they may exercise all the powers of the Company.

5. Members' reserve power

The voting Members may, by special resolution, direct the Directors to take, or refrain from taking, specified action. No such special resolution invalidates anything which the Directors have done before the passing of the resolution.

6. Directors may delegate

Subject to the Articles, the Directors may delegate any of the powers which are conferred on them under the Articles;-

- 6.1.to such person or committee;
- 6.2.by such means (including by power of attorney);
- 6.3.to such an extent;
- 6.4.in relation to such matters or territories; and
- 6.5.on such terms and conditions as they think fit.
- 6.6.If the Directors so specify, any such delegation may authorise further delegation of the Directors' powers by any person to whom they are delegated.
- 6.7.The Directors may revoke any delegation in whole or part, or alter its terms and conditions.

7. Committees

- 7.1.Committees to which the Directors delegate any of their powers must follow procedures which are based as far as they are applicable on those provisions of the Articles which govern the taking of decisions by Directors.
- 7.2.The Directors may make rules of procedure for all or any committees, which prevail over rules derived from the Articles if they are not consistent with them.

DECISION-MAKING BY DIRECTORS

8. Directors to take decisions collectively

The general rule about decision-making by Directors is that any decision of the Directors must be either a majority decision at a meeting or a decision taken in accordance with Article 9.

9. Unanimous decisions

- 9.1.A decision of the Directors is taken in accordance with this Article when all eligible Directors indicate to each other by any means that they share a common view on a matter.
- 9.2.Such a decision may take the form of a resolution in writing, copies of which have been signed by each eligible Director or to which each eligible Director has otherwise indicated agreement in writing.
- 9.3.References in this Article to eligible Directors are to Directors who would have been entitled to vote on the matter had it been proposed as a resolution at a Directors' meeting.
- 9.4.A decision may not be taken in accordance with this Article if the eligible Directors would not have formed a quorum at such a meeting.

10. Calling a Directors' meeting

- 10.1. Any Director may call a Directors' meeting by giving notice of the meeting to the Directors or by authorising the Company Secretary (if any) to give such notice.
- 10.2. Notice of any Directors' meeting must indicate;-
 - 10.2.1.its proposed date and time;
 - 10.2.2.where it is to take place; and
 - 10.2.3.if it is anticipated that Directors participating in the meeting will not be in the same place, how it is proposed that they should communicate with each other during the meeting.
- 10.3. Notice of a Directors' meeting must be given to each Director, but need not be in writing.

11. Participation in Directors' meetings

- 11.1.Subject to the Articles, Directors participate in a Directors' meeting, or part of a Directors' meeting, when;-
 - 11.1.1.the meeting has been called and takes place in accordance with the Articles, and
 - 11.1.2.they can each communicate to the others any information or opinions they have on any particular item of the business of the meeting.
- 11.2.In determining whether Directors are participating in a Directors' meeting, it is irrelevant where any Director is or how they communicate with each other.
- 11.3.If all the Directors participating in a meeting are not in the same place, they may decide that the meeting is to be treated as taking place wherever any of them is.
- 11.4.The Board of Directors shall have power to invite any person it wishes to attend any meeting of the Board of Directors in an advisory capacity but without power to vote thereat.

12.Quorum for Directors' meetings

- 12.1.At a Directors' meeting, unless a quorum is participating, no proposal is to be voted on, except a proposal to call another meeting.
- 12.2.The quorum for Directors' meetings may be fixed from time to time by a decision of the Directors, but it must never be less than five, and unless otherwise fixed it is five.
- 12.3.If the total number of Directors for the time being is less than the quorum required, the Directors must not take any decision other than a decision;-
 - 12.3.1.to appoint further Directors, or
 - 12.3.2.to call a General Meeting so as to enable the Members to elect further Directors.

13.Chairing of Directors' meetings

- 13.1. The Directors shall appoint a Chair to chair meetings of the Directors.
- 13.2. The Directors may terminate the Chair's appointment at any time.
- 13.3. If the Chair is not participating in a Directors' meeting within ten minutes of the time at which it was to start, the Vice Chair, if one is appointed by the Directors, will chair the meeting. If the Vice Chair is not present, appointed or willing to chair the meeting, and an appointment to chair the meeting has not been agreed prior to the meeting, the participating Directors must appoint one of themselves to chair it.
- 13.4. Subject to 13.2 above and 20.9 the appointed Chair shall hold office for the term of their directorship.
- 13.5. In the event of the Chair resigning (either as Chair or as a Director) or otherwise being removed as Chair, the Directors shall appoint in line with 13.1 above. For the avoidance of doubt, the new Chair may or may not be a current Director.

14. Casting vote

- 14.1. If the numbers of votes for and against a proposal are equal, the Chair or other Director chairing the meeting has a casting vote.
- 14.2. But this does not apply if, in accordance with the Articles, the Chair or other Director is not to be counted as participating in the decision-making process for quorum or voting purposes.

15. Transactions or other arrangements with the Company

- 15.1. Subject to sections 177(5) and 177(6) and sections 182(5) and 182(6) of the Companies Act 2006, and provided the director has declared the nature and extent of their interest in accordance with the requirements of the Act, a director who is in any way, whether directly or indirectly, interested in an existing or proposed transaction or arrangement with the Company:
 - 15.1.1. may be a party to, or otherwise interested in, any transaction or arrangement with the Company or in which the Company is otherwise (directly or indirectly) interested;
 - 15.1.2. shall be an Eligible Director for the purposes of any proposed decision of the directors (or committee of directors) in respect of such existing or proposed transaction or arrangement in which they are interested;
 - 15.1.3. shall be entitled to vote at a meeting of directors (or of a committee of the directors) or participate in any unanimous decision, in respect of such existing or proposed transaction or arrangement in which they are interested;
 - 15.1.4. may act by themselves or their firm in a professional capacity for the Company (otherwise than as auditor) and they or their firm shall be entitled to remuneration for professional services as if they were not a director;

- 15.1.5.may be a director or other officer of, or employed by, or a party to a transaction or arrangement with, or otherwise interested in, any body corporate in which the Company is otherwise (directly or indirectly) interested; and
- 15.1.6.shall not, save as they may otherwise agree, be accountable to the Company for any benefit which they (or a person connected with them [as defined in section 252 of the Act]) derives from any such transaction or arrangement or from any such office or employment or from any interest in any such body corporate and no such transaction or arrangement shall be liable to be avoided on the grounds of any such interest or benefit nor shall the receipt of any such remuneration or other benefit constitute a breach of their duty under section 176 of the Act.

16. Directors' Conflicts of interest

- 16.1.The Directors may authorise any matter proposed to them by any Director which would, if not authorised, involve a Director breaching their duty under section 175 of the Companies Act 2006 to avoid conflicts of interest ('Conflict').
- 16.2.Any authorisation under this Article will be effective only if:-
- 16.2.1.the matter in question shall have been proposed by any Director for consideration at a meeting of the Directors in the same way that any other matter may be proposed to the Directors under the provisions of these Articles or in such other manner as the Directors may determine;
- 16.2.2.any requirement as to the quorum at the meeting of the Directors at which the matter is considered is met without counting the Director in question; and
- 16.2.3.the matter was agreed to without their voting or would have been agreed to if their vote had not been counted.
- 16.3.Any authorisation of a Conflict under this Article may (whether at the time of giving the authorisation or subsequently):-
- 16.3.1.extend to any actual or potential conflict of interest which may reasonably be expected to arise out of the Conflict so authorised;
- 16.3.2.be subject to such terms and for such duration, or impose such limits or conditions as the Directors may determine;
- 16.3.3.be terminated or varied by the Directors at any time
- 16.3.4.provide that, where the Director in question obtains, or has obtained (through their involvement in the Conflict and otherwise than through their position as a director of the Company) information that is confidential to a third party, they shall not be obliged to disclose that information to the Company, or to use it in relation to the Company's affairs where to do so would amount to a breach of that confidence.

This will not affect anything done by the Director prior to such termination or variation in accordance with the terms of the authorisation.

16.4. Where the Directors authorise a Conflict they may provide, without limitation (whether at the time of giving the authorisation or subsequently) that the Director:-

16.4.1. is excluded from discussions (whether at meetings of Directors or otherwise) related to the Conflict;

16.4.2. is not given any documents or other information relating to the Conflict;

16.4.3. may or may not vote (or may or may not be counted in the quorum) at any future meeting of Directors in relation to any resolution relating to the Conflict.

16.5. Where the Directors authorise a Conflict:-

16.5.1. the Director will be obliged to conduct himself in any terms imposed by the Directors in relation to the Conflict;

16.5.2. the Director will not infringe any duty they owe to the Company by virtue of sections 171 to 177 of the Companies Act 2006 provided they act in accordance with such terms, limits and conditions (if any) as the Directors impose in respect of its authorisation.

16.6. A Director is not required, by reason of being a Director (or because of the fiduciary relationship established by reason of being a Director), to account to the Company for any remuneration, profit or other benefit which they derive from or in connection with a relationship involving a Conflict which has been authorised by the Directors or by the Company in a General Meeting (subject in each case to any terms, limits or conditions attaching to that authorisation) and no contract shall be liable to be avoided on such grounds.

17. Non-disclosure of Conflict of Interests – Sanctions

Any Director who fails to disclose a conflict of interest to the Directors in accordance with Articles 15 and 16 may be charged with bringing the Company into disrepute in accordance with the prescribed Directors code of conduct.

18. Records of decisions to be kept

The Directors must ensure that the Company keeps a record, in writing, for at least 10 years from the date of the decision recorded, of every unanimous or majority decision taken by the Directors.

19. Directors' discretion to make further rules

19.1. Subject to the Articles, the Directors may make any rule or regulation which they think fit about how they take decisions, and about how such rules and regulations are to be recorded or communicated to Directors.

19.2. The Directors may from time to time make such rules, regulations, statutes or Bye-laws as they may deem necessary for the proper conduct and management of the Company.

19.3. The Directors shall adopt such means as they deem sufficient to bring to the notice of Members of the Company all such rules, regulations, statutes or Bye-laws, which so long as they shall be in force, shall be binding on all Members of the Company. Provided, nevertheless, that no rule, regulation, statute or Bye-law shall be inconsistent with, or shall affect or repeal anything contained in the Articles of the Company.

APPOINTMENT OF DIRECTORS

20. Methods of appointing Directors

20.1. Until and unless otherwise determined by the Company in General Meeting, there shall be a maximum of nine Directors and the minimum number shall be five.

20.2. The business of the Company shall be managed by the Directors who shall consist;-

20.2.1. five (5) Directors elected by the Members; and 20.2.2. four (4) directors appointed by the Directors.

20.3. The Company shall follow the agreed recruitment process for all Director appointments and elections.

20.4. Nominations for election of Directors must be made by a Member holding voting rights. Nominations must be submitted (together with the nominee's written consent) on the Company's approved form. The nomination must be received by the Company at least six weeks before the date of the Annual General Meeting or General Meeting in which the election is to take place. Confirmation of receipt of valid nominations will be sent in writing to the nominator as soon as reasonably practicable after such receipt.

20.5. Following nomination the proposed director shall follow the principles outlined in the 'Director Recruitment and Selection Policy'.

20.6. New nomination details shall be forwarded to all voting Members at least 14 days prior to the meeting at which the election is to take place.

20.7. All elected Directors shall hold office for four years, retiring at the Annual General Meeting held in the fourth year, unless they shall have previously resigned or ceased to be a director by virtue of Article 21 below.

20.8. Appointed Directors shall hold office for up to two years and are eligible for re-appointment, subject to the provisions on the total number of years served set out in Article 20.9.

20.9. Nothing shall prevent an existing or previous Director serving a further term or terms should he be re-elected or re-appointed except that no

Director, whether elected and/or appointed, may serve more than eight years in total.

20.9.1. At the end of the maximum term served stated in 20.9 a person shall be ineligible for nomination, election or appointment as a Director and shall be required to retire at the next Annual General Meeting if the maximum term is reached during their period of office.

20.9.2. Any term served by any Director before the adoption of these Articles shall not be included in the reckoning of the number of years served for the purposes of 20.9 above but will be used for the continuation of the rolling term election system in place at the time prior to the adoption of these articles.

20.10. The Directors may fill a casual elected vacancy, subject to 20.9, in their number of Directors, by appointment or election, to act for the appropriate period remaining on the original Director term. Any part of a year served in such circumstances by a newly appointed or elected Director will be treated as if it were a full year for the purposes of Article 20.9.

20.11. The Directors for the time being of the Board may act notwithstanding any vacancy in their body.

20.12. Subject to the provisions of these Articles, including Director rules and regulations set under Article 19.2 and maximum terms any person who is willing may act as a Director of the Company if permitted by law to do so; a person may be chosen to be a Director

20.12.1. by ordinary resolution, or

20.12.2. by a decision of the Directors

20.13. A Director cannot be a Nominated Representative and in the event that a Nominated Representative shall be elected or appointed as a Director they shall immediately cease to be a Nominated Representative.

21. Termination of Director's appointment

A person ceases to be a Director as soon as;-

21.1. that person ceases to be a Director by virtue of any provision of the Companies Act 2006 or is prohibited from being a Director by law;

21.2. a bankruptcy order is made against that person;

21.3. a composition is made with that person's creditors generally in satisfaction of that person's debts;

21.4. a registered medical practitioner who is treating that person gives a written opinion to the Company stating that that person has become physically or mentally incapable of acting as a Director and may remain so for more than three months;

21.5. notification is received by the Company from the Director that the Director is resigning from office, and such resignation has taken effect in accordance with its terms;

21.6. the Directors resolve that their office be vacated by a resolution duly passed in line with the code of conduct.

22. Directors' remuneration

- 22.1. Directors may undertake any services for the Company that the Directors decide.
- 22.2. Directors are entitled to such remuneration as the Directors determine;-
 - 22.2.1. for their services to the Company as Directors, and
 - 22.2.2. for any other service which they undertake for the Company
- 22.3. Subject to the Articles, a Director's remuneration may;-
 - 22.3.1. take any form, and
 - 22.3.2. include any arrangements in connection with the payment of a pension, allowance or gratuity, or any death, sickness or disability benefits, to or in respect of that Director
 - 22.3.3. unless the Directors decide otherwise, Directors' remuneration accrues from day to day
 - 22.3.4. unless the Directors decide otherwise, Directors are not accountable to the Company for any remuneration which they receive as Directors or other officers or employees of the Company's subsidiaries or of any other body corporate in which the Company is interested.

23. Directors' expenses

The Company may pay any reasonable expenses which the Directors properly incur in connection with their attendance at;-

- 23.1. meetings of Directors or committees,
- 23.2. General Meetings,
- 23.3. or otherwise in connection with the exercise of their powers and the discharge of their responsibilities in relation to the Company.

24. The President

- 24.1. A President may be appointed by the Directors on such terms and conditions as the Directors shall decide but cannot be a Director of the Company.
- 24.2. The Directors may terminate the President's appointment at any time.
- 24.3. The President cannot be a Nominated Representative and in the event that a Nominated Representative shall become President they shall immediately cease to be a Nominated Representative.

PART 4 MEMBERS

BECOMING AND CEASING TO BE A MEMBER

25. Membership

- 25.1. There shall be different categories of member and membership with different rights and privileges as agreed by the Directors and set out in the Membership Regulations of the Company as amended from time to time.
- 25.2. Every voting Member, on being accepted will be entitled to receive notices of and attend all General Meetings of the Company, to be on the mailing list of the Company and to such other additional rights and privileges as the Directors may from time to time determine.
- 25.3. On acceptance of its application to become a Member such Member if requested to do so, shall provide the name of its Nominated Representative for voting purposes by notice in writing to the Company and a Member may at any time in like manner remove its Nominated Representative and make new nominations. A Nominated Representative must be 18 years old or over.
- 25.4. Notices will be made available in the manner determined by the Directors.

26. Termination of Membership

- 26.1. A Member may withdraw from membership by giving 7 days' notice to the company in writing.
- 26.2. Membership shall cease:-
- 26.2.1. if a Member shall fail to pay any money due to the Company including without limitation any affiliation fee payable under these Articles or the Company's rules and Bye-laws.
- 26.3. Membership is not transferable other than with the agreement of the Directors.
- 26.4. Welsh Judo Association acting reasonably following the Disciplinary Procedures of the Company may expel any Member (or members of it) if it considers that it is inappropriate that membership should continue or if the conduct of the Member (or members of it) shall bring Welsh Judo Association into disrepute.

ORGANISATION OF GENERAL MEETINGS

27. Attendance and speaking at General Meetings

- 27.1. An Annual General Meeting may be held each year and the date shall be set by the Directors.
- 27.2. The Directors will circulate notice for the Annual General Meeting at least 2 months before the date of the meeting and circulate the Agenda at least 14 days before the date of the meeting.
- 27.3. A General Meeting may be called at any time at the request of the Directors by giving 28 days' notice to the Members or upon receipt by the Company of a requisition to call such a meeting signed by not less than 31 Nominated Representatives.
- 27.3.1. Any such request made by the Nominated Representatives must state the terms of a resolution or resolutions capable of being voted upon at the meeting
- 27.3.2. Following a valid request by the Nominated Representatives the Company must organise a General Meeting within 2 months of receiving the request.
- 27.4. The Directors will circulate notice for a General Meeting at least 21 days before the date of the meeting and circulate the Agenda at least 14 days before the date of the meeting.
- 27.5. Notices of motion put forward by Members for the Annual General Meeting must be received by the Company at least 6 weeks before the date of the Annual General Meeting.
- 27.6. A Member or Director is able to exercise the right to speak at an Annual General Meeting or General Meeting when that person is in a position to communicate to all those attending the meeting, during the meeting, any information or opinions which that person has on the business of the meeting.
- 27.7. A Member is able to exercise the right to vote at an Annual General Meeting or a General Meeting when;-
- 27.7.1. that Member is able to vote, during the meeting, on resolutions put to the vote at the meeting, and
- 27.7.2. that Member's vote can be taken into account in determining whether or not such resolutions are passed at the same time as the votes of all the other persons attending the meeting.
- 27.8. The Directors may make whatever arrangements they consider appropriate to enable those attending an Annual General Meeting or a General Meeting to exercise their rights to speak or vote at it.
- 27.9. In determining attendance at an Annual General Meeting or a General Meeting, it is immaterial whether any two or more Members attending it are in the same place as each other.
- 27.10. Two or more Members who are not in the same place as each other attend an Annual General Meeting or a General Meeting if their circumstances are such that if they have (or were to have) rights to speak and vote at that meeting, they are (or would be) able to exercise them.

28. Quorum for General Meetings

No business other than the appointment of the Chairman of the meeting is to be transacted at an Annual General Meeting or a General Meeting if the persons attending it do not constitute a quorum. A quorum shall be 10 voting Members in attendance by Nominated Representative or by proxy and able to vote.

29. Chairing General Meetings

29.1. The Chair shall chair general meetings if present, willing and able to do so.

29.2. If the Chair is unwilling or unable to chair the meeting or is not present within ten minutes of the time at which a meeting was due to start :-

29.2.1. If the Chair is unwilling or unable to chair the meeting or is not present within ten minutes of the time at which a meeting was due to start:-

29.2.2. the Directors present, must appoint a Director to chair the meeting, and the appointment of the Chairman of the meeting must be the first business of the meeting;

29.2.3. if no directors are present, the meeting must appoint a Member to chair the meeting, and the appointment of the Chairman of the meeting must be the first business of the meeting.

29.3. The person chairing a meeting in accordance with this Article is referred to as "the Chairman of the meeting"

30. Attendance and speaking by Directors and non-Members

30.1. Directors may attend and speak at all meetings of the Company, whether or not they are members.

30.2. The chairman of the meeting may permit other persons who are not Nominated Representatives to attend and speak at an Annual General Meeting or a General Meeting.

31. Adjournment

31.1. If the persons attending a General Meeting within half an hour of the time at which the meeting was due to start do not constitute a quorum, or if during a meeting a quorum ceases to be present, the chairman of the meeting must adjourn it.

31.2. The chairman of the meeting may adjourn a General Meeting at which a quorum is present if;-

31.2.1. the meeting consents to an adjournment, or

31.2.2. it appears to the chairman of the meeting that an adjournment is necessary to protect the safety of any person attending the meeting or ensure that the business of the meeting is conducted in an orderly manner.

31.2.3. if any confidential information which may affect any voting at the meeting has been disclosed to any other person without the authorisation of the Directors.

31.3. The chairman of the meeting must adjourn a General Meeting if directed to do so by the meeting.

- 31.4. When adjourning a General Meeting, the chairman of the meeting must;-
- 31.4.1. either specify the time and place to which it is adjourned or state that it is to continue at a time and place to be fixed by the Directors, and
 - 31.4.2. have regard to any directions as to the time and place of any adjournment which have been given by the meeting.
- 31.5. If the continuation of an adjourned meeting is to take place more than 14 days after it was adjourned, the Company must give at least 7 clear days' notice of it (that is, excluding the day of the adjourned meeting and the day on which the notice is given);-
- 31.5.1. to the same persons to whom notice of the Company's General Meeting is required to be given, and
 - 31.5.2. containing the same information which such notice is required to contain.
- 31.6. No business may be transacted at an adjourned General Meeting which could not properly have been transacted at the meeting if the adjournment had not taken place.

VOTING AT GENERAL MEETINGS

32. Voting: general

1. Methods of voting will be clearly indicated in notices of meetings, usually the following methods will be used;-
 - 1.1. by Nominated Representatives present
 - 1.2. by Proxy vote
 - 1.3. by postal vote if so advised on the agenda of the meeting
2. A resolution put to the vote at a General Meeting must be decided on a show of hands unless a poll is duly demanded in accordance with the Articles.
3. Any election at a meeting shall always be put to a vote and if there shall be more candidates than positions available the vote will be conducted by secret ballot.
4. For the avoidance of doubt no person other than a Nominated Representative shall have the right to a vote at meetings unless that person is holding a proxy.
5. If a Nominated Representative shall by reason of sickness or any other cause be unable to attend a meeting then the Member which has appointed the representative may by prior notice in writing to the Company appoint a temporary alternative representative to attend that meeting in place of such representative or it may grant a proxy in writing either to the President, Chairman or other Director, or to the Nominated Representative of another member. No Nominated Representative may hold more than one proxy.
6. A temporary alternative representative shall have the same right to attend speak, hold a proxy and vote at such meeting as the Nominated Representative whose place they have been appointed to take.

7. If a Member shall be unable to attend an Annual General Meeting or a General Meeting then the Member may grant a proxy in writing either to the chairman of the meeting, a Director, or another Nominated Representative.

33. Errors and disputes

- 33.1. No objection may be raised to the qualification of any person voting at a General Meeting except at the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote objected to is tendered, and every vote not disallowed at the meeting is valid.
- 33.2. Any such objection must be referred to the chairman of the meeting whose decision is final.

34. Poll votes

- 34.1. A poll on a resolution may be demanded;-
 - 34.1.1. in advance of the General Meeting where it is to be put to the vote, or
 - 34.1.2. at a General Meeting, either before a show of hands on that resolution or immediately after the result of a show of hands on that resolution is declared.
- 34.2. A poll may be demanded by;-
 - 34.2.1. the chairman of the meeting;
 - 34.2.2. the Directors;
 - 34.2.3. two or more persons having the right to vote on the resolution.
- 34.3. A demand for a poll may be withdrawn if;-
 - 34.3.1. the poll has not yet been taken, and
 - 34.3.2. the chairman of the meeting consents to the withdrawal.
- 34.4. Polls must be taken immediately and in such manner as the chairman of the meeting directs.

35. Content of proxy notices

- 35.1. Proxies may only validly be appointed by a notice in writing (a "proxy notice") which;-
 - 35.1.1. states the name and address of the Member appointing the proxy;
 - 35.1.2. identifies the person appointed to be that Member's proxy and the General Meeting in relation to which that person is appointed;
 - 35.1.3. is signed by or on behalf of the Member appointing the proxy, or is authenticated in such manner as the Directors may determine;
 - 35.1.4. is delivered to the Company in accordance with the Articles and any instructions contained in the notice of the General Meeting to which they relate.

- 35.2. The Company may require proxy notices to be delivered in a particular form, and may specify different forms for different purposes, proxy notices must be received by the Company at least 48 hours before the start of the meeting to which the proxy refers.
- 35.3. Proxy notices may specify how the proxy appointed under them is to vote (or that the proxy is to abstain from voting) on one or more resolutions.
- 35.4. Unless a proxy notice indicates otherwise, it must be treated as;-
- 35.4.1. allowing the person appointed under it as a proxy discretion as to how to vote on any ancillary or procedural resolutions put to the meeting, and
 - 35.4.2. appointing that person as a proxy in relation to any adjournment of the General Meeting to which it relates as well as the meeting itself.

36. Delivery of proxy notices

- 36.1. A Nominated Representative that is entitled to attend, speak or vote (either on a show of hands or on a poll) at a General Meeting remains so entitled in respect of that meeting or any adjournment of it, even though a valid proxy notice has been delivered to the Company by or on behalf of that Member.
- 36.2. An appointment under a proxy notice may be revoked by delivering to the Company a notice in writing signed by the Member by whom or on whose behalf the proxy notice was given.
- 36.3. A notice revoking a proxy appointment only takes effect if it is delivered before the start of the meeting or adjourned meeting to which it relates.

37. Amendments to resolutions

- 37.1. An ordinary resolution to be proposed at a General Meeting may be amended by ordinary resolution if;
- 37.1.1. notice of the proposed amendment is given to the Company in writing by a person entitled to vote at the General Meeting at which it is to be proposed not less than 48 hours before the meeting is to take place (or such later time as the chairman of the meeting may determine), and
 - 37.1.2. the proposed amendment does not, in the reasonable opinion of the chairman of the meeting, materially alter the scope of the resolution.
- 37.2. A special resolution to be proposed at a General Meeting may be amended by ordinary resolution, if;-
- 37.2.1. the chairman of the meeting proposes the amendment at the General Meeting at which the resolution is to be proposed, and
 - 37.2.2. the amendment does not go beyond what is necessary to correct a grammatical or other non-substantive error in the resolution.

37.3.If the chairman of the meeting, acting in good faith, wrongly decides that an amendment to a resolution is out of order, the chairman's error does not invalidate the vote on that resolution.

PART 5

ADMINISTRATIVE ARRANGEMENTS

38. Company Secretary

38.1.A Company Secretary may be appointed by the Directors on such terms and conditions as the Directors shall decide and unless the person so appointed is a Director, the Company Secretary shall have no voting rights at Directors' meetings.
