

General Complain Procedure

Welsh Judo is responsible for setting and maintaining the standards of service delivery to our members, stakeholders and the wider public and is committed to dealing with any complaint equitably, comprehensively and in a timely manner.

Dealing with General Complaints

The emphasis of the General Complaints Procedures of Welsh Judo will be on the early resolution of problems with a minimum of disruption to members.

- All complaints will be dealt with sympathetically, fairly and honestly.
- Responses to complaints will be as full and detailed as possible.
- If Welsh Judo, its employees, volunteers or usual processes are found to be at fault that will be acknowledged and the complainant will be informed of any future action to be taken to prevent similar problems occurring again.

1. General Complaints

A general complaint that is not linked in any way to an action that might be associated with a criminal, disciplinary, anti-doping or safeguarding offence is defined as:

- an expression of dissatisfaction about an action (or inaction) or decision (or policy) of Welsh Judo as a corporate body, or by one of its employees, or by a Director or other volunteer acting in any capacity on behalf of the Company
- a complaint may initially be made verbally (the complainant will be asked to follow it up in writing in the majority of cases), or in writing, either by letter, fax or e-mail

A person making a complaint is usually referred to as “the complainant”. Complaints can come from any sphere of your activities. They may come from a member, another organisation, a parent/guardian or a member of the general public. Irrespective of where the complaint originates this standard process should be used.

2. Who will deal with complaints

In all cases the complaint will be directed to the most appropriate person:

Person/body against whom the complaint is made	Initial response	Response to the Complaint	Additional/subsequent response if complaint not satisfied
Welsh Judo as a corporate body or one or more of its Directors	Standard letter, or email confirming receipt of the complaint and	Standards Commission CEO	Appeals Panel
CEO	name of person to

Employee	whom the complaint has
Person working on behalf of Welsh Judo in self-employed capacity, or as a volunteer e.g. coach, tournament official, committee member	been referred	The member of staff responsible for the relevant area of work e.g. performance, development, events

3. Process

All general complaints will be acknowledged in writing by letter or email within 10 days of receipt. The acknowledgement will confirm the person to whom the complaint has been directed and inform the complainant of the procedure that will be followed in dealing with the matter and if possible the likely timescale. A standard initial response format should be used.

The person receiving the complaint will either deal with it themselves or pass it to the appropriate person to deal with, as shown above.

The person dealing with the complaint will:

- Determine the facts of the matter as required, the actions to determine the facts will vary on a case by case basis
- Keep the complainant informed of progress with regard to their complaint, particularly important if there is likely to be a delay in answering the complaint for any reason
- Write to the complainant answering their concerns and giving explanation(s) where appropriate within 10 working days unless a longer period is required in order to obtain information

4. Appeals

Should the complainant be dissatisfied with the response of Welsh Judo regarding their complaint, they may lodge an appeal. The appellant has 14 working days to make the appeal in writing to the Standards Commission. The Standards Commission will form an Appeals Panel from Directors independent from the original investigation.

The complainant must clearly summarise the grounds for appeal. The Appeals Panel will respond to the appeal within 14 working days. Any subsequent correspondence will be dealt with within 14 days.

The appellant may at any time, withdraw the appeal by providing written notice to the Standards Commission. The Appeals Panel may confirm any decision made by the original complaint responder, or vary it, or reverse it or increase it or reach any such other decision as they feel is appropriate in all the circumstances.

Welsh Judo should not enter into lengthy and extended correspondence with the complainant or appellant once the original complaint and any subsequent substantive issues have been answered and/or resolved as far as Welsh Judo is concerned. The Standards Commission should bring the matter to a close, in the most amicable way possible, if they believe that nothing will be gained by either party through continuance of the discussions.

Approved	November 2016
Next review	November 2018

Darren Warner
CEO