British School Championships guidelines – for judoka and parents	Judoka <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Help beginners or lower grades, if you can. • Follow all judo rules throughout the event. • Bow correctly at the beginning and end of a contest. It is not whether you win or lose, but how you play the game. • Accept decisions; let your coach ask any necessary questions. • Control your temper, do not shout or abuse other judoka or officials. • Be a good sport, cheer all good play, and respect all of your fellow judoka. • Remember that the aim of the British Schools Championships is to have fun. Help you develop as a judoka. Improve your skills and conduct yourself in a sportsman like manner, plus represent the ideals, disciplines and etiquette of the British Judo Association to the highest level. • Treat all other judoka as you would like to be treated, do not take unfair advantage of any judoka. • Co-operate with your coach and opponents, without them you do not have a game. Parents <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Please be aware that children develop differently, at different rates and react differently to the same pressures. • Children and young people are involved in organised sport for their enjoyment as well as yours and so please respect this at all times. • Always encourage your child to train and compete by the rules of judo. • Teach your child that effort and teamwork are as important as victory, so that the result of each contest is accepted without unnecessary disappointment and with a positive sporting attitude. • Never ridicule or shout at your child for making a mistake or losing a contest. • Children learn best by example. Applaud good play by your team and by members of the opposing team. • Do not question publicly the officials’ judgement and never their honesty. • Support all efforts to remove verbal and physical abuse from children's sporting activities. • Set an example by being friendly to the parents of the opposition, emphasise enjoyment and fun, praise and reinforce effort and improvement.
